

Permissions - Azure Blob Storage

Shared access signature configuration

The minimal, required permissions to configure the Azure Blob Storage to work with:

Allowed services:

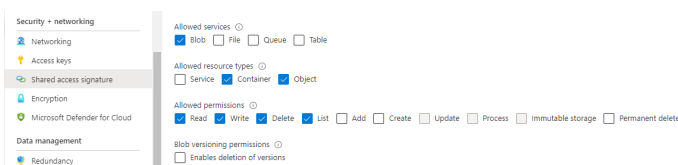

- Blob

Allowed resources types:

- Container
- Objects

Allowed permissions:

- Read
- Write
- Delete
- List

The connection string generation

Generation the connection string with the specified permissions

1. Log in as an administrator to the Azure webiste
2. Select the storage and hit the "Shared Acces Signature" in the "Settings" tab.
3. In the opened window select the permissions described in the "Shared access signature configuration" section of this article.
4. Hit the "Generate connection parameters and shared access signature" button

Generation the connection string with the full permissions

1. Log in as an administrator to the Azure Website
2. Select the storage
3. Open the "Access keys" tab in the "Settings" section